YOUNG SMALL NOW IN JAIL

Fought with Father, Threatened his Mother, Tried to Burn Barn and Did Various Other Things. Held for April Term of Court.

To reach manhood behind prison bars will be the fate of Harry Small, son of David Small, of near McSherrystown, who is now in the Adams County jail having been committed by Justice George L. Rice, of McSherrystown, on his own confession of guilt. Small was also held to answer charges of assault and battery on both his father and mother, and surety of the peace, preferred by a neighbor, Gregory Welsh. Officer Dougherty, of McSherrystown, who had charge of the prisoner, found two razors in his pocket, but did not bring the additional charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons, believing that the young man had enough to answer for.

While young Small's actions bear evidence of a vicious nature, the offenses for which he will answer before the court were committed, probably, while under the influence of liquor.

The hearing had a pathetic side, which touched the hearts of the large crowd which filled Justice Rice's court. When the mother of the accused youth took the stand to testify that her son threatened her life with a razor, shouting that he "would cut her heart out!" the boy's head fell, and tears came into his eyes. The mother's testimony was given in sobs and there were other eyes which were dimmed with tears. A hush fell over the court room, which was unbroken until Mrs. Small was led away.

The father testified that the trouble began when "Tom," as the boy is nicknamed, came home to supper, apparently slightly under the influence of liquor. The father and son had words, which ended in a tussle, the father getting the best of the boy. The threat to the mother followed, after which the boy went to the barn and in a spirit of revenge set fire to the hay in the loft. This occurred shortly before 6 p. m. Fortunately the fire was discovered in its incipency by passers by and was extinguished before much damage was done.

John Hook, John Gouker, William Small, George Weaver and James Lingg were among those who first saw the smoke and helped to extinguish the flames. Reuel Small, a neighbor's son, also testified that Harry asked him for a match shortly before the fire, and after replying that he didn't have any Harry pulled out a pocket full.

Following the burning of his father's barn, Small made threats about burning the barn of a neighbor—Gregory Welsh.

William Small, James Lingg, John Hook and George Hook testified that they heard Small say he was going to burn Welsh's "shack" the first chance he got, and to two of the witnesses he added "tonight."

After the incidents as above stated Small walked to Hanover, where he was arrested by Constable Duterra, who received information over the telephone from Officer Dougherty, of McSherrystown, who had warrants for his arrest, to be on the lookout for the accused. The constable ran across Small about 8 o'clock and held him until Officer Dougherty arrived, who kept him in the lock-up that night, and after the hearing brought him to the Gettysburg jail.

Small's birthday is on the 23d of this month, when he will be 21 years old.

WORK WILL BEGIN

William Hahn, superintendent of Pen Mar park for the Western Maryland Railroad Company, will begin Monday to make the necessary improvements and get the park in shape for the opening season.

The boards will be removed from the dancing pavilion; several of the large mounds near this building will be removed in order to give visitors to the park more room to walk around without walking over them, and the sod on the remaining mounds will be removed. This will be replaced by four carloads of new sod.

POLICE CHECK HOBO NUISANCE

Borough Police Watch Numerous Tramps with Care and Few People in Gettysburg are bothered by Unwelcome Visitors.

With numerous tramps of all sizes, kinds and descriptions in this part of the country Gettysburg's police force has been so active during the past few weeks that there has been almost no complaint on the part of town people of the hoboes bothering them.

This week word was received that a number of the knights of the road had been seen north of town and Chief Gordon at once detailed himself to watch that end of the borough. The tramps immediately became scarce and no further trouble was manifested. The bread and water diet for which Gettysburg has become noted among the traveling fraternity seems to have had the desired effect.

That there are numerous tramps about town cannot be denied as they can be seen every day. They pass on through, however, and it rarely occurs that any one in Gettysburg is asked for money or anything to eat. If such people are asked they usually live near the edge of town where the men can get out of reach before police arrive on the scene.

The customary visits of the hoboes to this office continue throughout the entire year. Scarcely a week passes without some visitors of this kind invading the place and requesting exchanges. If an effort is made to start conversation it is soon seen that the travelers are about the best read persons on current topics that one comes across.

WATER LOW FOR TROUT FISHING

Anglers Find Mountain Streams Low and Many of them either Hunt Other Places or Return Home. Farmers are Worried.

Fishermen who went to mountain streams on Friday to fish for trout were confronted by an unusual condition and a number of the men who went out with rod and line forsook the places because the water was too low for successful sport.

Many of the streams on the mountain which have always been known for good trout fishing afforded no opportunities at all on Friday on account of the low waters and the sportsmen who went to those places either returned home or else sought other haunts.

The condition of the streams is of course ascribed to the long duration of the dry "spell" which is causing considerable anxiety in this section. In some parts of the county the farmers are afraid that the drought has somewhat stunted the growth of wheat and other grains and others say that no damage has as yet been done to the growing crops.

At some points on the mountains springs that were always never failing have gone dry.

MANEUVER NEWS

Congressman Lafean telephoned this afternoon that Major General Bliss, who will be in command during the maneuvers this Summer, stated to him that the maneuver camp would be held at Gettysburg during the entire month of July. The message was received by E. P. Miller president of the Retail Merchants' Association.

DIFFICULT FEAT

A very difficult feat was performed by Milton H. Loyer, assistant foreman at the coal chutes of the Western Maryland Railway Company at Porter's Siding.

Mr. Loyer went to Porter's in quest of some fertilizer to use on his potatoes. Mr. Loyer jokingly remarked that he could carry a bag of 167 pounds home, a distance of 1 1/4 miles. He, however, was at once confronted with the proposal that if he carried it home alone in two hours he would not need to pay for it; but if he failed to get it home he would have to pay for the fertilizer, and $1.00 besides.

At 8:30 Mr. Loyer started with his fertilizer, and at 9:50 he landed it on his porch, having completed his feat in 1 hour and 20 minutes. He took 10 rests to complete the job. He was obliged to shoulder the bag alone each time he rested, which, he says was the hardest job. Next morning he reported for work hardly as ever. The wager money was promptly paid. Mr. Loyer is a young man weighing 145 lbs.

WEEK'S WORK CLOSES

The last of the Sabbath School meetings held in the county this week took place in the Lutheran church at Biglerville on Friday evening when the schools of the Sixth District held their rally. Six schools are represented in that district and the meeting was very largely attended. Rev. D. T. Koser, of Gettysburg, presided, and an address was made by Miss Robinson, the state worker who spent the week in this county.

This morning a meeting of the County Committee was held at the Hotel Gettysburg to review the work of the past week, known as the "Front Line Campaign." Plans were adopted for the work of the coming Summer, and a standard of excellence for all the Sunday Schools in the county was acted upon. This standard of excellence will be outlined in these columns later.

SAMUEL HERSHEY

Arendtsville, April 16—Friday morning about half past ten o'clock this community was greatly startled to hear of the sudden death of Samuel Hershey of this place. He was assisting several other men putting a bridge over a small stream in the alley near his home and he was on his way to the house for a drink of water when he fell over dead in his yard at the house.

He was aged 64 years, 7 months and 14 days. He was a man of excellent character and good habits and will be greatly missed by his many friends in this community.

Funeral Monday morning, meet at the house at 10 a. m. Interment in the Fairview cemetery in this place.

200 BILLS

Some indication of the large number of forest fires that have been destroying the trees of the State during the past week can be gained from the fact that the State Forestry Commission has received in the last few days 200 bills from fire wardens and assistant wardens.

The fires in many places gained such headway that the district wardens and district assistants were unable to cope with the situation and they authorized other assistants to help them. The bills so far received are mostly for small amounts.

No estimate of the area covered by the fire has been obtained yet by the Forestry Commissioners.

McAllister and Samuel R. Andrews, of Gettysburg, and John Kane, of Orrtanna. The Times extends congratulations to these gentlemen.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE

There is considerable talk of a farmer's telephone line being built from Taneytown to Harney, by the way of Walnut Grove school house, and from there to the Pennsylvania line, at which point they would connect with the Mt. Joy company and thus establish connections with Littlestown, Gettysburg, Greenmount, and nearly all the larger farms throughout that section.

PROBING RAILROAD GRAFT

Stuyvesant Fish's Name Drawn Into the Investigation.

Chicago, April 16.—The name of Stuyvesant Fish, former president of the Illinois Central Railroad company, was drawn into the investigation of alleged graft on the part of employees and officials of that road. A preliminary report from the detective who has been conducting an investigation that will be submitted to President J. T. Harahan will show that the majority of those charged with corruption are either appointees of the Fish administration or employees who have been working under those appointees. The report will show further that so far as the investigation has proceeded it indicates that the fraud has extended over a period of four years.

The total amount of the stealing is now said to be $2,500,000. Whether the shortage will exceed this amount is yet in doubt.

Rumors were to the effect that the investigation follows the threat of the Fish forces to make a battle to regain control of the Illinois Central in consequence of the death of E. H. Harahan, who wrested it from them several years ago. It was even said that off-repeated reports of the resignation of President Harahan had emanated from the Fish camp and that the present investigation is intended to reveal the secrets of the Fish administration. Mr. Harahan when asked about the reports, said: "There isn't anything that I can say now, but there is likely to be a statement before many days."

HE HAS BLACK HAIR IF THE WEATHER'S FAIR

But It Turns Flaming Red as Storm Approaches.

Allen, Md., April 16.—Stanley Joyce, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Joyce, near this town, is worth more to the farmers in a dry time than all the local weather observers in the United States, that is if his hair will only turn a reddish color when there is a drought on.

He is a veritable walking barometer, a local weather bureau within himself, and when his hair says rain it doesn't mean "probably showers," but a down-pour.

Young Joyce's hair is as black as a raven in fair weather, and as long as it remains black there is no rain on hand, no matter how hard the weather bureau may try to scare up one. It simply won't rain so long as his hair is black. But let there be an approaching storm and the boy's hair gets on the job in double quick by suddenly turning red, and within forty-eight hours there will be a down-pour. Stanley's hair predicted the much welcome rain of this week.

Might Have Helped Soms.

On one occasion the Rev. Sam Jones, the noted Georgia revivalist, had taken for his text "Vanity" and to point his moral said:

"Now, if there is a woman in the congregation this morning who didn't look into the mirror before coming to the meeting I want to see her—I want her to stand up."

A single woman arose and stood with meekly downcast eyes. To describe her in a kindly way one would say "homely." The Rev. Mr. Jones rested his earnest eyes upon her.

"Well, God bless you, sister," he said. "It certainly is a pity that you didn't!"

STORM HITS AVIATION FIELD

Three Men Killed, Farman's Shops Destroyed and Machines Wrecked.

Paris, April 16.—A windstorm hit the aviation grounds at Chalons, and three persons were killed and three others injured. Farman's aeroplane works were ruined and nine machines were smashed. The new school of Rogers Sommers, the aviator, collapsed and that of Prince Boloff, the Russian aviator, was blown down, exposing his aeroplane, which was reduced to matchwood. A number of sheds at Chalons, which is the headquarters of the aviators, were also destroyed. Farman's loss alone is placed at 300,000 francs.

Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Absolutely Pure...

WOMEN EXPIATE HISSING OF TAFT

Suffragists Adopt Resolution Thanking Him For Speech.

AN "HISTORIC COURTESY"

Delegates Deplore Incident When Executive's Views on Votes For Women Evoked Hisses.

Washington, April 16.—In explanation of the hissing which greeted the remarks of President Taft, the woman suffrage convention adopted a resolution of thanks and appreciation for his words of welcome.

The resolution described Mr. Taft as the "first incumbent of his office to recognize officially our determination to secure a complete democracy, thereby testifying his conviction as to its power and growth."

It also said that the president's seriousness, honesty and friendliness had "converted what might have been an empty form into an official courtesy, historic alike for him and for us."

Going to Have Votes.
The resolution, which was adopted unanimously by a rising vote, ends as follows:

"Resolved, That we convey to President William H. Taft the thanks and appreciation of this convention for his welcome, assuring him at the same time that the patriotism and public spirit of the women of America intend to make themselves felt in the government of which he is the honored head, and that at no distant date."

Previous to their meeting the women gathered in groups in hotel corridors to discuss the hissing incident which was termed by many as "deplorable."

Officers and a great number of the delegates expressed regret at the occurrence.

The session of the convention was preceded by a conference on practical methods of work, at which Mary Hutcherson Page, of Massachusetts, presided.

Reports From States.
When Rev. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw called the convention to order reports were read from South Dakota, Oregon, Washington and Oklahoma, in which states the association has campaigns pending.

The convention paused in the transaction of business to pay tribute through addresses to the memory of Henry B. Blackwell and William Lloyd Garrison, Jr.

SCORES TAFT ON SUFFRAGE

Dr. Kelly, of Johns Hopkins, Believes Hissing Justified.
Baltimore, April 16.—Dr. Howard A. Kelly, of Johns Hopkins, declared that the hissing of President Taft by the women suffragists was justified. Dr. Kelly said:

"The hissing was only an outspoken expression of their feelings of disapproval. I am always glad to see people expressing their actual feelings. This is an age of virility and energy. The time for smoothing things over has passed, and women as well as men are learning that the only way to secure what they want is to express disapproval of existing conditions, and to work hard for the reforms."

"President Taft is entirely wrong in his statement that the ballot will mean the control of politics by an undesirable element. Experience in Denver has proven that out of the 129 districts in the city there are only two districts where this undesirable element is at all evident. The result in the election shows that no noticeable effect on the general vote."

"The undesirable element has practically showed no interest in the ballot in the west, and even in cases where small interest has been shown, it has had no power. Then why should any community be alarmed at possible difficulty if women are allowed their rights? The argument that there is cause for worry is ridiculous."

"Are not the best women in the country working for the franchise? Florence Kelley, of New York; Jane Addams, of Chicago, and Mrs. Donald R. Hooker, of this city, all of whom are among the finest women in the United States, are devoting their lives to the service. It is obviously certain that the best women will continue their interest in politics and the undesirable element will ignore, as hitherto, any affairs of state."

Whisky War Is On.
Cincinnati, April 16.—A trade war between independent distillers and the whisky trust is expected to break out. The basis for spirits and the cheaper whiskies is to be reduced from $1.35 to $1.33 a gallon. The trust, it is reported, will announce a price of $1.50.

Saw Father Hang Himself.
Cleveland, April 16.—Sitting on the porch of her parents' home, at Brecksville, O., Mrs. Alice Wehman, a bride of two weeks, watched her father hang himself, unaware until too late of what he was doing.

Child Drowns In Well.
Johnstown, Pa., April 16.—David, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mangel, of Shade township, Somerset county, while attempting to get a drink at a well fell in and was drowned.

FARMER OWNS NATION.
Crop Values Show Money Kings Are Not In Possession.

The farmer, not the money king of Wall street, is the real owner of the United States. This is the opinion of Isaac F. Marcovson expressed in Munsey's. The gleam of his fields is an ether Aladdin story, continues Mr. Marcovson, only instead of rubbing a lamp he has simply scraped the ground.

Our cereal crops last year were worth $2,000,000,000, which is sufficient to pay for all the tools, implements and machinery of the whole of American industry. While this sum seems huge as it stands alone, you have only to go back a few years to the story of our agriculture to see the miracle of steady increase that has been achieved. Eleven years ago the value of all our farm products for a single year was reckoned at $4,417,000,000. You have already seen how that figure was doubled by 1909. During these years the sum total that the soil has yielded the farmers is $70,000,000,000. The advance is so steady and sure that you can almost calculate upon it year by year.

Compare this record with the ebb and flow of earnings in steel or any other industry, and you will realize as never before how agriculture keeps the even tenor of its prosperous way, unimpaired of panic or depression. Why? Simply because land is stable, and, given proper methods of farming, the more you take out of it the more valuable it becomes. It cannot be moved away; it is, in truth, the very foundation of the nation's material welfare. It would take $24,000,000,000 to buy our farm lands, and their value is real and not watered, save by irrigation.

T. R. ANGERED BY CANDIDACY YARN

Has Not and Will Not Discuss Politics in Europe.

GREETED BY FRANCIS JOSEPH

Visits the Hapsburg Tombs, Calls on the Foreign Minister and Reviews Troops.

Vienna, April 16.—Mr. Roosevelt denied emphatically the published statement that he had agreed with Gifford Pinchot that his name might be used again in connection with the presidency.

The story appeared originally in the "Secolo XIX." of Genoa, and was repeated in special dispatches to Paris and to the United States.

It said in effect that Mr. Roosevelt had reached an agreement with Mr. Pinchot that if it became opportune he would become a presidential candidate again.

No Politics While Abroad.
Mr. Roosevelt reiterated that he had not, and would not, "make any declaration in regard to American politics while in Europe." He had received and talked with Mr. Pinchot, he said, as he would receive and talk with any other political friend.

Mr. Roosevelt said he would hereafter decline to receive the newspaper correspondent who had given currency to this report.

The distinguished guest was met on his arrival here by Herr von Mueller, principal secretary of the foreign office, as representative of the Austrian government; American Ambassador Kerens and others of the American embassy staff, and Baron Hengelmüller von Hengervar, Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Washington.

White Goes to Meet Him.
After breakfast with Henry White, formerly American ambassador to France, who came from Silesia to meet him, Mr. Roosevelt received several Americans.

He then drove in the court carriage to the foreign office and made an official call upon Count von Aehrenthal, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister. Returning to his hotel, the former president received a call from Baron Hengelmüller, who remained for luncheon. Mr. Kerens and Mr. White being also in the party.

Mr. Roosevelt drove to the Hofburg palace, where he was received in audience by Emperor Francis Joseph. As a special mark of esteem the emperor received his guest in his private apartments instead of in the usual audience chamber.

Emperor's Guard Salutes.
As Mr. Roosevelt entered the courtyard the palace guard turned out and rendered him military honors.

The emperor returned the call, which was a notable compliment for the aged monarch returns the visits only of reigning sovereigns and of ambassadors upon the occasion of the presentation of their credentials.

From the palace Mr. Roosevelt visited the Capuchin church, in the vaults of which the Hapsburgs are buried. He placed wreaths upon the tombs of Elizabeth and Crown Prince Rudolf.

The Capuchin monks showed the former president the tombs of Maria Theresa and her husband, Francis I, and of Emperor Maximilian of Mexico.

Mr. Roosevelt left cards for Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne; Prince Montenuovo, the court chamberlain, and Count Paar, personal adjutant of the emperor.

Later he visited the military riding school and visited a review of the regiment of hussars commanded by Prince Brunn, at Breitensee.

A crowd in front of the Hotel Kranz displayed the keenest interest throughout the day in Mr. Roosevelt's comings and goings. At each appearance of the American these persons raised their hats respectfully.

MINER BLOWS UP FAMILY

Dies In Explosion With His Wife and Son.

Negaunee, Mich., April 16.—Frank Haarrnan, a miner, placed a stick of dynamite under the bed in which his wife and three-year-old daughter were sleeping, and another under the bed that held his five-year-old boy. When the dynamite was exploded by a slow fuse the man, woman and boy were blown to atoms. The girl had a miraculous escape, being found practically unharmed on the floor of the room.

Old Dog Bite Kills.
Philadelphia, April 16.—Bitten by a vicious dog nearly a month ago, Charles McCormick died of hydrophobia at the Philadelphia hospital. A few days ago McCormick developed unmistakable signs of the disease by being thrown into convulsions at the sight of water. He was on Wednesday removed by members of his family to the municipal institution and everything possible was done by the physicians. After suffering terribly for some thirty hours he died.

Senator McCumber Operated Upon.
Washington, April 16.—Senator Porter J. McCumber, of North Dakota, was operated upon at a local hospital for an internal abscess from which he has been suffering for several weeks.

BLOOD STANDS STILL

Piles Can't Be Cured Until Circulation Is Restored.

It is useless to try to cure piles by operating or use of salves or suppositories—as long as the blood is stagnant in the lower bowel, new tumors will continue to form. Clear the blood—free the circulation. Then piles will leave for good.

LEIGH VALLEY MEN SETTLE

Company and Employees Agree as to Hours of Work and Pay.

New York, April 16.—Announcement was made that the Lehigh Valley Railroad company had made a settlement with the trainmen which gives them a ten-hour day and some slight concessions in the schedule of wages.

It has also granted the switchmen an increase of three cents per hour. Short run passenger trainmen will now get $2.25 per day and baggage men $2.35. Through passenger trainmen will get $4.75 per trip and baggage men $5. Miscellaneous freight men will get $2.30 a day and local freight men $2.70. Yard service men have been given an increase of 39 cents per day. The new wage scale will date from April 1.

STEEL TRUST PROVIDES RELIEF FOR MEN

Will Aid Financially Employees Injured or Killed.

New York, April 16.—The United States Steel corporation has adopted a plan for financially aiding men injured in its plants and for pensioning the families of employees killed in accidents at work. The plan was ratified at the meeting of presidents of subsidiary companies and will go into effect May 1. It is a purely voluntary provision and is made by the steel corporation and its subsidiaries without any contribution from the men.

Following the provisions of all foreign laws and all legislation suggested in this country, there is a period of ten days before payment of relief begins. For permanent injuries lump sum payments are provided. These are based upon the extent to which each injury interferes with employment and upon the annual earnings of the men injured. In case men are killed in work accidents their widows and children will receive one and a half year's wages, with an additional 10 per cent for each child under sixteen, and 3 per cent for each year of service of the deceased above five years.

Experience will perhaps lead to some modifications of this plan, but it will be in operation for one year from May 1, 1910, and if it meets with success and approval from the men and the public it is hoped that similar and possibly improved plans may be adopted in succeeding years.

LIGHT REVEALS SUICIDE

Burned For Six Weeks Over Body of Wealthy Recluse.

Pittsburg, April 16.—A light which burned for six weeks in a house on Bluff street excited curiosity which resulted in the discovery that W. R. Robin, a wealthy recluse, had been dead for a month or more.

At his door was mail which had accumulated since March 10. Beside the bed was a bottle marked carbolic acid. Robin lately inherited a large fortune from an aunt.

MARK TWAIN BETTER

Country Air Revives Him and His Breathing Is Easier.

Redding, Conn., April 16.—Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), who arrived at his country home here much fatigued from his long journey from Bermuda and extremely ill, passed a comfortable night, and it was said at the house that he seemed much brighter and that his general condition was encouraging.

High Finance Insurance.
Charleston, W. Va., April 16.—It is charged that the active managers of the Consolidation Casualty company, before its reorganization here this week under the direction of the insurance department of West Virginia, collected $757,114 in one year and nine months, of which only $191,637 remains; that they made false entries on the books of the company and false returns to the insurance department of this state. The charges are contained in a report made to the state insurance department.

In setting young fruit trees of any kind care should be taken that the root system equals or exceeds that of just what should be done if the tree

If any readers of these notes sus-about six inches deep on the barn or over it evenly, care being taken not to put on so much that it will soak through to the floor beneath. When the sprinkling has been done the grain should be shoveled over and mixed thoroughly, so that all of the seed will be moistened with the solution. An inspection will show whether enough solution has been added the first time.

If not, the seed may be given a second sprinkling. Machines costing $6 or $7 are on the market which have a tank containing the solution, through which the seed is passed and given thorough treatment. Such machine could treat seed for half a dozen or more farms and might well be owned jointly.

On the basis of its value in increasing crop production fresh manure is rated as having a value of $2.25 per ton, and experiments which have been made show that it will lose one-third of its value if it is allowed to leach for three months. This is not a large loss on a single ton, but it means that 100 tons of such fertilizer would be worth $225 and that the loss referred to would be $75, enough to buy a manure spreader or give the boy eight weeks at an agricultural college.

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND

By LEONARD MALLOY

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

"I saw Jenkins the other day," said Brown to the old customs inspector who had exposed more smugglers than any other man in the department. "and he told me to ask you the next time I saw you to tell me the romance of your marriage."

"Oh, he did, did he?" replied the inspector, scowling, but in spite of him self puckering up the corners of his mouth in a smile.

"Yes, he said there was quite a story connected with your courtship."

"Courtship be hanged!"

"Oh, go on!"

Brown offered the inspector a cigar, telling him to light up. The bribe was accepted and the story given.

"You know that tradesmen abroad are interested in learning ways by which their customers may evade paying duties on goods, because if the goods can be got in free of duty it's very much easier for the tradesmen to sell them. Some of these people know more ingenious tricks for evading duties than the regular smugglers."

"Well, one day the boss called me into his private office and, taking up a letter a friend of his had received, read it to me. It was an offer of a jewel in London to deliver goods in America free of duty."

"How do you suppose it's done?" he asked me.

"I don't know," I replied.

"I tell you what you do. Go over there, get in with the jeweler and find out. I'll get you a letter of introduction from his correspondent so that he'll feel obliged to show you some attention—perhaps invite you to his house. You can't find out anything in his shop, but you may run across something at home that will give away the trick."

"The result was that I took the next outgoing liner and within a week was in London. We had a good many trunks in storage held for some reason or other that had been all over Europe and were covered with hotel labels. I had taken off a dozen of these labels and pasted them on my own trunk. I did this because I intended to appear as having been traveling on the continent. I delivered my letter to the jeweler, an elderly man named Hicks. He received me very kindly and, as it was stated in the letter that I wished to bring home with me some jewels for my sister, offered to show me his stock at once. To this I replied that I was in no hurry and I would like to see something of London before my return. As I expected, he offered to show me around.

"He took me to theaters, the Tower, the abbey and all that, but I didn't see the inside of his home. Then I began to ask him about his family—we had got pretty thick by this time—and he asked me to dine with him and his family. I met in this way his niece, who lived with him and it wasn't long after that when I dispensed with the services of the jeweler for a guide and took the niece. I was getting to that age when a man feels flattered by a young woman's attentions, and the first thing that I knew I was dead set on taking her back with me to America. English girls, you know, have a very pleasant accent, and many of them can show the finest complexion in the world. Emily Robinson was one of that kind, and her kittenish ways were just the thing to catch an old bachelor like myself. She was glad enough to get a husband who would make her independent, and before long London we were not only engaged, but married.

"Of course I felt guilty at trying to find out how her uncle got goods free of duty into America, but anyway I could only stop him doing it. I could not punish him, he being an Englishman and in London. So I added merrily with his niece to a detective ruse with him. We were married a few days before the steamer sailed, and I bought about the same time $10,000 worth of diamonds, which my uncle-in-law agreed to deliver in New York free of duty.

"I took my wife with me to my hotel, and the loneliness of the place was dispelled at once. She was very practical and insisted on packing my trunk. I always hated that part of traveling and was glad enough to turn the matter over to her. We dined the day before sailing with her uncle and aunt and had a very jolly time. When we reached home my wife put my good clothes on the top of the other things already packed in my trunk and locked it. Then she began to look at the labels and said how she wished we had met before my tour instead of after it, as she would like to visit those places herself. I kissed her and promised her a trip just as soon as I could arrange to be again absent from business.

"When we reached home I told the boss that some diamonds were to come to us and we would have no trouble tracing how they reached us. My wife said the day after we got home that she didn't feel well and must ask me to unpack my trunk. I did so and at the bottom found a box I didn't recognize. I opened it and was astonished to see the diamonds sold by my British uncle-in-law. They had been put there by my wife.

"I looked at her.

"She burst out laughing.

"You wouldn't wish me to go back on uncle, would you?" she said.

"It was five minutes before I replied. Then I put my arms around her, with the remark, 'You're a jim dandy.'"

Horses that are poorly kept and become reduced in flesh are very liable to become wormy. Here is a remedy that has been fully tried and proved to be a first class corrective of that condition. Thoroughly mix a teaspoonful of pulverized smoking tobacco with a ground feed of corn or bran two or three times a week and give it to the horse. It will expel the worms, improve the horse's condition and make the hair glossy.

This remedy will not injure a mare with foal, but it pays to be very careful about giving any medicine to mares in that condition.

GO TO THE RESCUE

Don't Wait till it's Too Late—Follow the Example of a Gettysburg Citizen.

Rescue the aching back. If it keeps on aching, trouble comes. Backache is kidney ache. If you neglect the kidneys' warning, Look out for urinary trouble—diabetes. This Gettysburg citizen will show you how to go to the rescue.

Harry J. Tawney, 9 Steinwehr Ave., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "We publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago and at this time willingly speak in their praise again. My back ached almost constantly and at times I could hardly get around. The kidney secretions gave me much annoyance by their irregularity in passage and I was lame and stiff. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at the People's Drug Store and they positively and permanently cured me. I have been in good health ever since. I know of a number of other people who have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and in each case benefit has been received."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DEAR LADIES

It's Parisian Sage That Makes That Other Woman's Hair so Bewitchingly Lustrous.

When we say that Parisian Sage is the most wonderful hair tonic, dressing and beautifier known to mankind we are simply stating a fact that you can easily prove.

Get a large 50 cent bottle today; use it for two weeks; if it isn't the most delightful and refreshing tonic you ever used; if it doesn't drive out dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp you can have your money back.

Mrs. Francis Koegel, 41 W. Jessamine St., St. Paul, Minn., on Nov. 16, 1909, wrote: "I have used several hair tonics, but there is none that can compare with Parisian Sage."

It cured my falling hair and dandruff, and it does not only cure those troubles, but is the best hair grower in the world. Parisian Sage is creating a sensation wherever introduced. It is not sticky or greasy. It is in great demand by women of superior taste and refinement who desire fascinating and luxuriant hair that never fails to compel admiration. Sold by druggists everywhere and by The People's Drug Store. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by American makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Fair Proposition.

The house committee of a New York club once received this unique complaint:

"I have the honor to inform you that I lunched at the club this afternoon and had as my guests three gentlemen, all well known gourmets. Among other things an omelet was served. It contained only three flies. As an old member of the club, jealous of its reputation, I naturally found this very embarrassing, as, in order to make an equitable division of the omelet, it was necessary either to divide a fly—a nice bit of carving, as you must concede—or forego a fly myself. I beg to suggest that in the future when an omelet is served for four persons it should be either with (a) four flies or (b) no flies at all."
